RESOLUTION

Commending Taiwan for its history of democratic elections, and expressing support of Taiwan's democratic institutions.

Whereas Taiwan, the government of which officially calls itself the Republic of China (ROC), began transitioning to a liberal democracy in the late 1980s, lifting martial law in 1987 and holding the first direct legislative election in 1992 and the first direct presidential election in 1996;

Whereas Taiwan has now held 7 presidential, 9 legislative, and many local elections since the democratic transition, all of which were free, fair, and representative of the will of the people of Taiwan;

Whereas Taiwan has peacefully transferred presidential power between political parties 3 times and peacefully transferred parliamentary power between political parties 3 times;

Whereas the peaceful transfer of power is a bedrock of a free, stable, and representative political system;

Whereas the democratic institutions of Taiwan codify the freedoms of speech, press, assembly, and religion into law, and the citizens of Taiwan have exercised these freedoms in practice, building a vibrant civil society, strong journalistic and media sector, and an advanced business community;

Whereas the rule of law and vibrant civil society, diverse economy, and stable political system form the basis for the prosperity and freedoms of Taiwan, which rank far above the global average; and

Whereas, on January 13, 2024, Taiwan will hold its eighth presidential election and tenth legislative election since beginning the transition to democracy, after which a new president, vice president, and legislature will take office: Now, therefore, be it

2 SECTION 1. SENSE OF THE SENATE.

3 The Senate—

1 (1) commends Taiwan for the example it has
2 set for self-governance, not just for the Pacific re-
3 gion, but for the world;

4 (2) regards the democracy of Taiwan as a great
5 strategic strength for the free world and an indis-
6 pensable component of contemporary United States-
7 Taiwan relations;

8 (3) remains concerned about interference in
9 Taiwan's 2024 elections by the Chinese Communist
10 Party;

11 (4) is committed to continuing a strong part-
12 nership across diplomatic, information, economic,
13 and cultural domains, regardless of the outcome of 14 Taiwan's 2024 elections; and

15 (5) remains committed to United States policy
16 as established by the Taiwan Relations Act (Public
17 Law 96-8; 22 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.), the Three
18 Communiqués, and the Six Assurances towards Tai-
19 wan.

20 SEC. 2. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

21 Nothing in this resolution shall be construed as an
22 authorization for the use of military force.
